"Even so, come, Lord JESUS!" This is a Prayer said and shared by all those who love the Lord. Those who utter these Words understand that this present age will soon pass, to be replaced by the glorious Kingdom Of Heaven. In his most recent and third Book, The Millennium Revelation, author Melchizedek reveals how this Prayer might be fulfilled sooner than we think, and how it is being answered, even now.

Using his imagination, and an intellect quickened by the Spirit Of God, the author places significant historical events, from the past 2000 years, into the central context of Biblical Prophecy – Mz writes :

"That great jigsaw puzzle of Prophetic pieces, spanning the Old and New Testaments, were fitted closely together in the New Jerusalem, like a vast De Vinci Montage of centuries of history since the Desolation Abomination was erected, rising to that colossal crescendo of fulfillment in the 20th and 21st centuries."

This sentence characterizes the eloquence with which he explains how history and Scripture come together to fulfill Christ's grand purpose on this earth.

The first chapter, wherein the author masterfully reveals how history and Prophecy intertwine, sets the stage for the entire Novel.

The story begins in the 227th Year of The New Millennium. At this time Christ Reigns on earth and His Church rules the affairs of mankind. Moreover, Satan, the source and personification of Evil from the previous age, has been confined to the Bottomless Pit, where it will dwell (bearing the punishment) for one thousand years. Yet, despite the Lord's Presence, and the Devil's absence on earth, rebellious people continue to resist God's Will, as the darker forces of man conspire to oppose The Father's Prophecy of Satan being Released from The Bottomless Pit, at the end of The Millennium. In other words, things are not yet perfect in paradise.

In the process of creating this colorful drama, replete with profound passages of Scripture (and thoughtful exegeses of these Verses), the author reintroduces us to the Chief Patriarchs, Apostles and Prophets of Biblical Times. At the closing of the Book, all the seminal characters of the Old Testament and the New Testament, are reunited for a joyous celebration, The Feast Of Tabernacles. This grand event will take place in Jerusalem. This will be a Feast Day unlike any other, for at the event, God, The Father Himself, will enter the earthly realm (for the first time since Mount Sinai with Moses) – which is to say – JEHOVAH will be The Honored Guest at The Feast, established many millennia ago in His Holy Name and according to His Living Word. This celebration truly illuminates the royal character of The New Millennium, and the Novel.

The highlight of the work is the author's thoughtful and seamless interpretation of historic events in The Light of Holy Scripture. These Prophetic insights are conveyed in a poetic language, embellished (literally) with elaborate visual images which glorify God, and create a heightened sense of relief from the otherwise esoteric subject matter.

People who appreciate fiction based on Holy Scripture, especially intensely futuristic writing, exotically showcasing famous Biblical Characters, will find The Millennium Revelation both edifying and entertaining.
